TERMS OF CONTRACT

1. Throughout your internship, you'll receive regular feedback on your performance based on the goals and expectations of your role. After completing the program, your performance will be evaluated according to the company's criteria, and you'll be awarded a certificate of completion
2. All notes and documents, physical or electronic, related to trade secrets are considered confidential company information, including that of its suppliers, clients, agents, or distributors. Any such materials you acquire or create during your internship are the company's property and must be returned at the end of the program
3. You agree that maintaining confidentiality is vital to the company's success. Any breach or threatened breach of confidential information will cause irreparable damage, for which monetary damages are insufficient. In such cases, you agree to indemnify and hold the company harmless from any loss, cost, damages, or liabilities (including legal fees) resulting from your breach. This obligation will continue even after the expiration or termination of this offer
4. Upon leaving the company, you agreed to uphold professionalism and integrity by not sharing, writing, or commenting on any digital platform in a way that could harm the company's or its partners' reputation
5. The company reserves the right to terminate your internship at any time, without notice or compensation, for reasons such as changes in operations, poor performance, misconduct, policy violations, unapproved absences, or any breach of this agreement. During your internship, you are expected to acquire and manage at least one client portfolio as part of your project.
6. A pre-placement offer (full-time employment) may be extended based on your performance during the internship. You must adhere to the company's brand guidelines and avoid making disparaging remarks or damaging the company's reputation. Any violations, including inappropriate communication through digital platforms, may result in disciplinary actions and compensation for any damage caused to the company.
